

Azerbaijani President issues order to establish Ministry of Communications and High Technologies

Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev has issued an order to establish the Ministry of Communications and High Technologies on the basis of the Ministry of Communications and Information Technologies (MCIT).

The Cabinet of Ministers is tasked to develop draft regulations of the Ministry, its structure and number of staff and submit them to the President within a month.

Ali Abbasov was appointed the Minister of Communications and High Technologies.